1:30pm Chicago Symphony Orchestra

Rich in tradition, innovative in vision, the CSO, one of the truly great orchestras, is a musical force in Chicago and around the world. Founded in 1890 and first directed by Theodore Thomas, its 110 talented musicians offer over 200 performances and events a year. Famous for its outstanding directors (Thomas, Reiner, Solti, Barenboim) and renowned soloists, composers and conductors (Richard Strauss, Saint-Saens, Elgar, Rachmaninov), the Orchestra makes its home in downtown Chicago. Symphony Hall opened in 1904, and it was expanded in 1997 into today's Symphony Center. Today's program features Honnegar's Symphony No. 3 and the Faure Requiem.

4:00pm The Magnificent Mile

It doesn't get any better than the Windy City's North Michigan Avenue when it comes to shopping. From Water Tower Place, to Bloomingdale's, Neiman Marcus, Crate & Barrel, H & M and Filene's Basement, the choices are many. If it's got a name or a logo, you can find it here!
